2014 Private Swim Lesson Policies

- Children must be at least 2 ½ years of age before beginning private lessons. *Some exceptions apply.
- If you have to cancel a lesson, you will need to cancel 12 hours in advance in order to schedule a make-up class. If you do not cancel within 12 hours, the class time will be lost. Members should call the front desk at Four Seasons I (309-663-2022) to cancel a lesson. Instructors are allowed to make up only two lessons per session. When registering, please make sure you are able to commit to the day and time you sign up for.
- Please be on time for your lessons, your instructor often will have other lessons to teach as well.
- When registering for semi-private lessons, participants should keep in mind that we are unable to assign pairs for you. You must have a partner ready to sign up with you during registration. Pairs must be at the same ability level to participate in a semi-private lesson.
- Phone Reservation Procedure: Due to new club software, we can no longer accept credit card payments over the phone. When registering, members will have until the end of the business day to make payment at the club. Payment must occur at Four Seasons by the end of the business day to confirm your reservation. Lessons are forfeited if payment deadline is not met.

Private Lesson Pre-Registration Policies

- Pre-registration will be permitted for those staying in the same day & time as their instructor. If your lesson day, time, or instructor needs to change, you will be allowed to register on a first come, first serve basis during Early Bird Registration. You are still eligible to receive the pre-registration discount during Early Bird Registration.
- To ensure your enrollment in the next private lesson session, please make sure you fill out and return the pre-registration form by the posted deadline. If your form and payment are not received by the deadline, you risk forfeiting your spot.
- To qualify for the discounted pre-registration rate, forms and payment must be turned in by the posted deadline. *Some exceptions apply. Pre-registration forms are distributed by your instructor midway through the session. Please communicate with your instructor if you do not receive a form.

Thank you for your participation!
